

OUTDOOR LESSON PLAN

School	Základná škola Karloveská 61, Bratislava – Elementary School Karloveská 61
Subject	Music
Topic/Theme	Problems in the world and need for peace
Timeframe	5 x 45 minute lessons
Level	6 th and 7 th Graders
Activity	Write a song on the theme of world issues and peace. Perform it in Slovak with an English translation.
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To write a song on the theme of World Peace and issues facing the world - Perform the song in Slovak with background music. - Translate the song into English and read it as a poem.
Material Media Resources needed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Beatles Let it Be sound track (on the guitar) - Pens and paper to write the song
Description/ Step-by-step procedure	Lesson 1: Discuss the theme, brainstorm ideas and try to put it into a song format. Lesson 2: Reflect on the song they wrote the previous lesson, add/take away anything that is required and start putting the chorus and verse 1 to the backing track. Practise at home. Lesson 3: Sing the chorus and verse 1. Continue by adding the next 3 verses. Lesson 4: Practise the whole song together, trying this time without the lyrics. Translate it into English. Lesson 5: Practise the whole song and practise reading the English version.
Reflection/ Assessment	The students enjoyed the the theme though it was initially hard to express their ideas on the theme and put it into a song. To begin with they were shy but once they broke down their barriers and got into the song, they were proud of what they achieved. Translating and performing the English version was easier for them than the Slovak version.

Change

Key words: one world, peace, love, unity, equality, respect

Verse 1: Discrimination

Hate is not the answer or the reason
To show discrimination in any season
For us there is only one world,
It is important that everyone is heard.

Chorus:

*The world could be beautiful but we have to change,
We will not get there with this hate and rage.*

Verse 2: War

Pain, suffering, death and fear
Isn't very far from here.
Happiness is not wrong for all
Even if your'e short or if you are tall.

Chorus:

*The world could be beautiful but we have to change,
We will not get there with this hate and rage.*

Verse 3: Disinformation

We all hate the problem of disinformation
But it's an issue in every nation
There is no reason to be rude to each other
We need to share and help our sister and brother

Chorus:

*The world could be beautiful but we have to change,
We will not get there with this hate and rage.*

one world, peace, love, unity, equality, respect

Motív piesne: Beatles

1. Nenávisť nie je odpoveďou, nie je ani dôvodom,
žijeme len jeden svet
s rovnakým pôvodom.

2. Každý chce být vypočutý
svoje srdce otvoriť,
s láskou ísť to dáva zmysel
a tak svet pretvoriť.

Ref: Otvorí, otvorí, tvoje srdce otvorí, Iba láska dáva zmysel, srdcia pretvorí.

3. Bolest', strach a utrpenie
nie sú nikdy ďaleko.
Šťastie je tu pre každého,
či si nízko, či vysoko.

Ref:

4. Každý z nás je občas v dákej núdzi,
no musíme si pomáhať,
podať ruku, bratovi, sestře
s láskou pretvárať.
