

OUTDOOR LESSON PLAN

School	4th Primary school Iraklion Crete Greece
Subject	Lets go to learn outside
Topic/Theme	When the imagination becomes art - The doll
Timeframe	About 1 month
Level	1rd and 3rd grade of primary school (6-8 age)
Activity	Collaborative and experiential learning applies Students are divided into groups and work with their grandmothers Looking for photos, books or the web, visit a folklore museum
Objectives	Get the kids out of school Get in touch with the Elderly, hear and learn how they played in their years To get acquainted with the materials of the doll To collect the materials they need To acquire fine mobility skills through the manufacture of dolls Learn how to make dolls from simple materials Respect and watch their toys To develop a spirit of cooperation and teamwork To experience the joy of creation To stimulate their imagination and make it art To learn that nothing is thrown away and that with a little imagination everything is reused
Material Media Resources needed	Reading stories Hearing of life stories from grandmothers who visited school Visit of pupils to KEKOIF AP - COMMUNITY CARE CENTER FOR OPEN Elderly Protectors in our area Monitoring doll construction by grandmothers Puppet making by the pupils themselves
Description/ Step-by-step procedure	They were informed, searched, read, listened They visited KEKOIF AP - COMMUNITY CARE CENTER for Elderly Protectors in our area and discussed with the Elderly They watched the stories told by the grandmothers They watched their grandmother make dolls with simple materials

Reflection/ Assessment	The goals of the program were achieved, the students were out of school, they came into contact with the Third Age, they learned to work with each other and with the older ones. They knew the joy of creation and the joy of creation.
Students' work examples	Manufacture of dolls from simple materials

